

Programs available for Providence/Cranston Residents: Applications must be filled out at the Youth Center at netWORKri 1 Reservoir Avenue Providence, Open Mon – Friday 8 AM to 4 PM. Tuesdays and Thursdays to 8 PM Phone: 228-8350 to get more information and orientation dates. Interested youth need to bring Social Security Card, Birth Certificate, Proof of Address

Organization	Requirements	Type Of Program/Employment	Payment
Central RI Area Health Education Center	Ages 14 to 15 Providence or Cranston	Summer. Training and Placement in health care facilities such as hospitals, community health centers, and elderly care and office settings. Minimum 15 hours per week	Stipend
Goodwill Industries	Ages 14 to 15 Providence or Cranston	Summer. Transitional summer work program at Goodwill Industries locations. Monday through Thursdays from 9AM to 2PM. Activities include team building, job shadowing, and exposure to apprenticeship programs.	Stipend
Volunteers in Providence Schools	Ages 14 to 15 Providence	Summer. A six week, four days per week summer employments program. Employment will focus on urban renewal – construction, architecture, design, financing, politics, and preservation.	Stipend
RI Hospital/Lifespan PROGRAM FULL - CLOSED	Ages 16 to 19 Providence	Summer. Youth will be assigned to a variety of departments including: Lifespan Corporate Human Resources and Finance/Accounts Payable and in hospital departments such as transport, Medical Engineering, Cardiac Rehabilitation, Physical Therapy etc.	Employment
Providence After School Alliance	High School Students Providence	Summer. A six-week summer employment and job training program youth in still in high school. Youth will work assisting adult staff operating youth programming at sites such as middle schools, Roger Wms. Zoo, Community Boating and Police Athletic League.	Employment
The Metropolitan Regional Career and Technical Center	Ages 14 to 15 Providence or Cranston	Summer. Work experiences exploring career pathways in construction, child development or engineering. Will include workplace mentors.	Stipend
Institute for the Study and Practice of Nonviolence	Ages 14 to 19 Providence or Cranston	Summer. The 7-week summer program offers youth paid employment and leadership development in the form of training and practice in non-violent means of conflict resolution.	Employment
Cranston Chamber of Commerce	Enrolled at the Charter School	Summer. The program offers students enrolled in the NE laborers' Cranston Public School's Construction Career Academy job training and summer employment	Employment
Mount Hope Neighborhood Association	Ages 14 to 15 Mt. Hope Residents	Summer. The program operates May through August. It includes 2 weeks of employability skills training followed by 7 weeks of a work experience.	Stipend

Programs available for Providence/Cranston Residents: Applications must be filled out at the Youth Center at netWORKri 1 Reservoir Avenue Providence, Open Mon – Friday 8 AM to 4 PM. Tuesdays and Thursdays to 8 PM Phone: 228-8350 to get more information and orientation dates. Interested youth need to bring Social Security Card, Birth Certificate, Proof of Address

Providence Housing Authority	Ages 14 to 15 PHA Residents	Summer. The program offers a summer employment program for youth living in the 5 public housing family developments in Providence. Youth will serve as Junior Counselors in the Summer Youth Program.	Stipend
Education In Action – Exchange City	Ages 14 to 18 Providence or Cranston	Summer. The program offers a 2-week paid training that focuses on classroom training and real world success. Youth will attend a weeklong job skills training followed by a 2-day experience in “Exchange City” – a real life town with 14 businesses. Youth will attend seminars and workshops with J&W faculty focusing on hospitality, technology, business, culinary and leadership.	Stipend
Moto-Ring Technical Training Institute	Ages 14 to 18 Providence or Cranston	Summer: Career exploration in Mechanical and Construction trades. May receive credit and scholarship toward future enrollment in an MTTI trades course.	Employment
Year Up	High School Diploma or GED	Year-round. Provides a one year training and apprenticeship programs – the program includes 6 months of full time instruction and 6 months of apprenticeship.	Stipend
Rhode Island Foster Parents Association	Ages 14 to 21 Providence or Cranston	Year-round. The program serves youth who are aging out of the foster care system 12-week comprehensive financial literacy training. Upon completion youth are provided an opportunity to open an Individual Development Account	Incentive
Institute for Labor Studies and Research	14 to 24 Providence or Cranston	Year-round. The program offers youth instructional information on work preparation and maturity skills. Topics include: Child labor laws, Minimum Wage, Age Appropriate Working Hours, Workers Compensation, RI Employment Law and Health and Safety Regulations	Certificate
UNAP/RI Hospital	18-24 Providence or Cranston	Year-round. Provides entry-level training and employment opportunities in the health care professions and career ladder advancement for incumbent youth workers.	Certificate/ Employment
New England Laborers' Training Academy	HS graduates, Providence/Cranston	Summer. Provides support for youth enrolled in the General Construction Course with additional training and stipends. Upon completion participants are expected to go on to fulfill the training and job hours required to become a Journey Construction Craft Laborer.	Certificates Stipend

Programs available for Providence/Cranston Residents: Applications must be filled out at the Youth Center at netWORKri 1 Reservoir Avenue Providence, Open Mon – Friday 8 AM to 4 PM. Tuesdays and Thursdays to 8 PM Phone: 228-8350 to get more information and orientation dates. Interested youth need to bring Social Security Card, Birth Certificate, Proof of Address

WIA Programs:		Comprehensive Programs that require a two year commitment
Gateway Healthcare/Valley School	Ages 14 to 18 Providence or Cranston Enrolled Gateway school	A yearlong program that combines work readiness, work experiences, and academic skills.	Stipend
Boys and Girls Clubs of Providence	Ages 14 to 18 Providence In-School	The summer program includes job training and paid employment. During the school year the program will focus on Career Prep: job development; Project Learn: education and Skill Tech: computer skills curriculum.	Employment
Comprehensive Community Action Program	Ages 16 to 18 Providence or Cranston Out of School	Offered at the Skills Center at the Providence Place Mall, this program assists young people in obtaining a GED if needed, academic skills development and preparation for work or continued education.	Incentives
Comprehensive Community Action Program	Ages 19 to 21 Providence or Cranston Out of School	Offered at the Skills Center at the Providence Place Mall, this program assists young people in obtaining a GED if needed as well as Occupational Skills Training for employment.	Incentives
The Traveling Theatre	Ages 19-21 Providence or Cranston Foster Care Youth	This program will target youth aging out of foster care and provide intensive training to participants who will then work around the state as teaching assistants at week-long summer enrichment camps.	Stipend
Providence Community Action (PROCAP)	Ages 14-18 Providence In-School	A yearlong program that combines work readiness, work experiences, and academic skills.	Stipend
Urban League of RI	Ages 14-18 Providence In-School	A yearlong program that combines work readiness, work experiences, and academic skills.	Stipend
Providence Youth Center (CCAP)	Ages 14-21 In school or Out of School	Participants will be enrolled in WIA through the Youth Center, receiving some services there and referred out for other services.

Workforce Solutions of Providence/Cranston

Organization	Requirements	Type Of Program/Employment	# Slots	# Weeks
The Blessing Way 70 Pemberton Street Providence, RI 02908 Contact: Rev. Dr. Joyce Penfield, Executive Director blessingwayinfo@yahoo.com Phone: 401-709-3697 Fax: 401-750-0764	Ages 19 -24 Providence or Cranston	For youth who express a strong interest in exploring the field of carpentry and construction craft. Throughout the duration of the Summer Program, our Youth Outreach Worker will work closely with the case worker and youth and their family. Program includes: (1) Eight weeks of pre-apprenticeship: OSHA construction safety, First Aid / safety; blue print reading; construction math; and selecting building materials. (2) Work readiness instruction one day per week during the 8 weeks of skills training; (3) Week 9: Work readiness to complete final projects/activities of: career planning, green technologies, portfolio management, and financial literacy. (4) On-the-job training during the final four weeks of the proposed program by means of a 40 hour-work at V & L Construction and The Center. Youth will do a final project to build a shed.	20	15
Boys and Girls Clubs of Providence 550 Wickenden Street Providence, RI 02903 Contact: Nicole Durfresne, Chief Operating Officer ndurfresne@bgcprov.org Phone: 401-444-0750 x 108 Fax: 401-444-0757	Ages 14 to 16 Providence	Employment program with special emphasis placed on recruiting teens with gang or pre- gang involvement 4 training tracks at the Boys & Girls Club. Project will include Work Readiness, Reading Improvement, Recreation Leadership, and Work Crew (maintenance and landscaping)	40	6
Comprehensive Community Action 311 Doric Avenue Cranston, RI 02910 Contact: Chris Mansfield, Doric Center Program Director cmansfield@comcap.org Phone: 401-467-9610 Fax: 401-467-9030	Cranston	Twelve youth will be employed by the City of Cranston and will be required to meet all city and state age related restrictions. They will be employed in the following departments: Traffic -1 position; Highway – 2 positions; City Hall – 3 positions; Parks and Recreation – 4 positions; Senior Center – 2 positions An additional 20 youth will participate in an academic and job-readiness training program with community service projects for work experience.	32	7

Workforce Solutions of Providence/Cranston

Organization	Requirements	Type Of Program/Employment	# Slots	# Weeks
Center for Hispanic Policy and Advocacy, Inc. (CHisPA) 421 Elmwood Avenue Providence, RI 02903 Contact: Michelle Cortes-Harkins, Business Consultant mcharkins@gmail.com Phone: 401-467-0111 Fax: 401-467-2507	Providence Ages 14-24	The focus is on Hispanic youth. Participants will be divided into two smaller groups of 10 each and will meet at the CHisPA building on Mondays and Fridays where they will evaluate and record progress. Tuesdays through Thursdays will be spent in work experience with a focus on careers in the following growth industries: healthcare, information technology, green technologies, construction and financial services. Work experiences include the Para Los Jóvenes program and other work sites. Green technology incorporated: Architect, Manuel Cordero AIA, LEED AP, will work with students to identify current employment opportunities in green building design and manufacturing.	20	8
DaVinci Center 470 Charles Street Providence, RI 02904 Contact: John DeLuca, Executive Director Phone: 272-7474 Fax: 272-7960	Providence Ages 14-18	The seven week program will begin on July 7 and end on August 21. Three days – Tuesday through Thursday – will be at a job site based on placement in career paths of youth's choice. Mondays and Fridays will be spent at the DaVinci Center: Also included: six hours of Leadership Training during the 7 weeks, two hours of Vocabulary Building and Reading Comprehension per week, financial training, guest speakers on various careers, especially in "green" areas, field trips to go on-site to locations.	20	7
Federal Hill House Association 9 Courtland Street Providence, RI 02909 Contact: Nina Pande, Executive Director ninapande@federalhillhouse.org Phone: 401-421-4722 Fax: 401-421-4725	Providence Ages 14-17	Youth will be placed in either the hospitality (restaurant in the Federal Hill) or technology industries (Federal Hill House computer repair program), as determined by interest. Each student will develop a career plan, an employment portfolio, participate in workshops and field trips, learn interviewing and application skills, and learn how to pursue job readiness activities. Relevant education in core principles of green sustainability will be incorporated regardless of the specific job placement. Youth will visit colleges and various work sites and will learn about their State and Local Workforce Investment Boards to learn more about One-Stop Career Centers, and will visit netWORKri.	30	6

Workforce Solutions of Providence/Cranston

Organization	Requirements	Type Of Program/Employment	# Slots	# Weeks
Institute for Labor Studies and Research 99 Bald Hill Road, Suite 3 Cranston, RI 02910 Contact: Robert J. Delaney, Executive Director RDelaney@rilaborinstitute.org Phone: 401-463-9900 Fax: 401-463-8190	Providence or Cranston Ages 14-18	This program will focus on the sectors of construction, healthcare, tourism, and public sector jobs such as education and fire fighting. Of the 160 hours, students will be in classroom instruction 40 hours and at the work place for 120. Youth will take aptitude and assessment tests to determine job placement then make career and academic plans with mentors. Youth will attend job training forums on: apprenticeship, work safety, work readiness, college and post-secondary opportunities, job searching, as well as job specific skills. These forums will include green technology information and training. Students will then apply for an experience related to their interests. At the job site, student work will be monitored and evaluated by mentors.	20	8
Living History Contact: Robert K. Goldman, President RKGoldman@juno.com Phone: (401) 273-7025 Fax: Same	Providence or Cranston Ages 14-18	This program provides training for careers in history and historical preservation as students prepare to portray to the public the 14th Rhode Island Heavy Artillery; Rhode Island's Black Civil War regiment. Youth will be on duty for 22 hours a week at either Dexter Field in Providence or Fort Adams in Newport (transportation provided.) The Providence-based group will make presentations at Dexter Field, historic sites, senior centers, city parks, and at other youth programs in Providence. Youth on duty at Fort Adams will assist with fort restoration work, maintenance projects, guided tours, gift shop/customer service, office/clerical tasks, and publicity/outreach activities. All participating youth will take part in skills building and career exploration workshops with experts in historical interpretation, education, research, architecture, and planning.	20	6
The Metropolitan Regional Career and Technical Center (The Met) 325 Public Street Providence, RI 02905 Contact: Elayne Walker-Cabral, Director ewalker@metmail.org Phone: 401-286-0456 Fax: 401-752-2682	Providence or Cranston Ages 14-24	Job Readiness Skills and Placement: students will determine fields of interest, be trained and then placed as interns 4 days a week in various business in the area, (so far the Met has placed 3,500 interns in such programs) Adult mentor and monitoring sessions weekly for all youth Leadership Skill Development each Friday – training sessions with coaches and leaders. We will emphasize the information technology and green industries areas by cultivating partnerships and relationships we have experienced in development of curriculum, projects and work skills with Save the Bay, Narragansett Bay Commission and Waste Management.	50	6

Workforce Solutions of Providence/Cranston

Organization	Requirements	Type Of Program/Employment	# Slots	# Weeks
Mount Hope Neighborhood Association 199 Camp Street Providence, RI 02906 Contact: Lorenzo Perry, Youth Program Coordinator Lperry1@alum.bryant.edu Phone: 401-521-8830 Fax: 401-521-6402	Ages 14-24	Youth will be employed in the management of the Mount Hope Neighborhood Association, Inc.'s (MHNA) Summer Youth Development Center (YDC). Participant duties include: refereeing, coaching, scorekeeping, time keeping, set up/break down of equipment, promotion and facilitation of these programs. 20 hours per week with a stipend of $150.00 per week with an additional twelve (12) hours of work readiness training. Youth will also see the Health Care industry through Miriam Hospital. Three (3) targeted goals - 1. Positive summer work experience 2. Foster pride in ones neighborhood and the success of programs there 3. Promote positive personal, professional and leadership development on the part of Mt. Hope youth.	10	6
ProCAP 518 Hartford Avenue Providence, RI 02909 Contact: Nada Petrovic, Associate Director/Development nap@procapri.org Phone: 401-272-2000 Fax: 401-228-3078	Providence Ages 14-18	Work will include clerical, front-line assistance, child care, etc. in community sites throughout the city. Work readiness and skills training will be based on ISS testing and will include Friday workshops covering maturity, financial literacy, and career exploration with visits to industries in Section D of the RFP construction, hospitality, and healthcare sectors (including information on green technologies). ProCAP will also provide family and individual counseling, substance abuse prevention and treatment, and mental health screenings.	30	8
Providence Housing Authority 100 Broad Street Providence, RI 02903 Contact: Sorrel Devine, Director of Resident Services sorreld@pha-providence.com Phone: 401-709-6401 Fax: 401-709-6425	Providence Ages 14-24	Focus on youth in Providence public housing over 16 weeks. PHA Foreman will direct, train, and supervise the youth on a daily basis. Work will include basic custodial and maintenance tasks at various Providence sites. Youth will receive 1 week of work readiness the first week as well as weekly training.	18	16

Workforce Solutions of Providence/Cranston

Organization	Requirements	Type Of Program/Employment	# Slots	# Weeks
Rhode Island Foster Parents Association 55 South Brow Street East Providence, RI 02914 Contact: Abby Klieman, Development Director abby.klieman@rifpa.org Phone: 401-438-3900 x 110 Fax: 401-438-3901	Providence or Cranston Ages 14-24	The Voice is a youth led advocacy board Work Readiness - 12 hour comprehensive financial literacy training, a matched savings account including $1.00 for $1.00 matches up to $1,000 per year towards the purchase of durable assets, and ongoing door opener opportunities. Experience: 5 Voice youth placed in the Association's office will develop a youth-led outreach and marketing plan to recruit and retain foster youth. The youth will learn over 18 weeks about marketing, public relations and web development industries as well as clerical duties as they work to expand the program to offer opportunities to DCYF kids.	5	18
RI Hospital/Lifespan 593 Eddy Street Providence, RI 02903 Contact: Alexis Devine, Youth Development Coordinator adevine@lifespan.org Phone: 401-793-4692 Fax: 401-793-3120	Providence or Cranston Ages 14-24	Youth will be incorporated into RIH summer youth program which is in its 3rd Year. The program of 110 youth encompasses workplace readiness skills, appropriate paid work experiences, and case management to address social, medical and academic needs. Starting with training in June, students 4 days a week will work across the Lifespan hospital departments and 1 day a week in work readiness training with weekly check-ins to record and discuss progress. Work experience through Lifespan Corporate Human Resources at Rhode Island Hospital, The Miriam Hospital and Emma Pendleton Bradley Hospital. Assignments will take place primarily in the departments of: Transport, Medical Engineering, Cardiac Rehabilitation, Physical Therapy, Respiratory Therapy, Pediatric Rehabilitation, HIV Research, Radiology, Patient Registration and "green" projects. Youth will receive training and, as it is a multiyear course, can advance year to year. Lifespan expects to employ 15% of all program graduates in 2009	20	8
RI Indian Council	Providence Ages 14-24	Target: Native American High School dropout youth Focus on monument, masonry, and landscaping industries Work readiness will be covered in the first three weeks of the program and will constitute 20% of the total program - including career planning, and basic job readiness skills. Work: community service reclamation of the severely damaged Locus Grove	15	15

Workforce Solutions of Providence/Cranston

Rhode Island Indian Council 807 Broad Street Providence, RI 02907 Contact: Darrell Waldron, Executive Director agreen@rhodeislandindiancouncil.org Phone: 401-781-1098		cemetery. Project will last for 15 weeks with aspects such as historical research, Native American cultural activities, and hands-on skill building in related industries. Dave's Landscaping Company and Mason Clayton Company will provide classroom and on-site instruction. Work will include cleaning the grounds, pouring new headstone foundations, repairing headstones, and landscaping. Project partners are St. Paul's Lutheran Church, the City of Providence, and the Providence Youth Center. Each week two participants will be responsible for making a presentation to the group when they will reflect on the project and what they have contributed to the team effort. Youth 18 and over will be enrolled in RIIC's WIA program as follow-up to the summer program.
South Providence Neighborhood Ministries 747 Broad Street Providence, RI 02907 Contact: Amy Thomas, Youth Program Director Amy@spnm.org Phone: 401-461-7509 x 109 Fax: 401-785-8277	Providence Ages 14-24	"Work for Success": 10 week Leadership Development and Job Readiness program. (supplemental to existing urban student program) Youth Leadership Development- group work to analyze leadership traits Junior Counselor Job Training- computer and job finding skills Work Experience- office, kitchen, dining room, athletics/recreation, and education Academic Support- tutoring and literacy groups College Career Planning- uses waytogori.org and youthWORKS411	10	10
Urban League of RI 246 Prairie Avenue Providence, RI 02905 Contact: Celeste Jeffery, Director Ajsquo1@hotmail.com Phone: 401- 351-5000 x 111 Fax: 401-454-1946	Providence Ages 18-24	Work experience with "green technology" and community-based for and non-profit business sectors. Placements at four work sites, Monday – Wednesday, (1) Cleanscape (for-profit recycling), (2) Ecotope (for-profit eco-landscaping), (3) City of Providence Department of Public Works (public recycling), and the (4) Urban League of Rhode Island (non-profit organization). On Thursday and Friday, youth will complete work readiness and work maturity skills development that will include pre-employment, job retention, career exploration, financial etc. Additionally, ULRI will provide outreach, assessment, work readiness and portfolio preparation for Living History and RIFPA whose contracts offer work experiences only.	75	8

Workforce Solutions of Providence/Cranston

Organization	Requirements	Type Of Program/Employment	# Slots	# Weeks
Volunteers in Providence Schools 905 Westminster Street Providence, RI 02903 Contact: Karlene Toppin, Learn to Earn Program Director Saaski90@hotmail.com Phone: 401.274-3240 Fax: 401-277-9090	Providence Ages 14 to 15	Designed for students interested in health care industry. Youth will work in the Providence VA Medical Center (VA Center) in direct exposure to health care professionals. During the first week of the program VIPS will give an overview of the field of medicine where students will record progress, work on team projects and hear guest speakers. Youth will job then shadow/intern for professionals in the VA Center's administrative staff three days a week, for four weeks of the six-week program. Students will be assembled into five groups of five, and will rotate through different career experiences: Medical/Surgical, Nursing, Human Resources/ Finance/ Engineering, Facilities Management, Patient Service/Information Technology, and Housekeeping/Landscaping. ESL classes available.	25	6
Whitmarsh House 1055 North Main Street P. O. Box 72832 Providence, RI 02905 Contact: Carolyn Pacheco, Coordinator cpacheco@whitmarshcorp.org Phone: 401-351-7230 x 107 Fax: 401-421-0198	Providence Ages 14-24	Whitmarsh will administer a pretest to evaluate basic workplace skills, and a post test to evaluate retention Work Readiness: one hour four days a week at our Vision School in Providence. Youth matched to participating worksites throughout Providence based on surveys and will work 16 hours/week on site. The Coordinator and site supervisors will visit each youth at his work site to determine how the youth is progressing and complete weekly evaluations	20	18
Young Voices Contact: Karen Feldman, Co-Director Kfeldman1@cox.net Phone: 401-751-3086	Providence Ages 14-18	The mission of Young Voices is to transform urban youth into RI's next generation of community leaders Each youth will work on one of three community service projects: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • filming an educational video designed to prevent teen dating violence • designing a policy document about education reform • creating a photo documentary about "unnatural causes" for RI Dept of Health. Youth will be required to work on these projects a minimum of 70% of their 20-hour week (30% of their time will be spent in work readiness training). Work Readiness Training: classroom-based training in basic readiness skills such as resume writing, interview skills, job search techniques, professionalism on the job, and punctuality.	15	8

Workforce Solutions of Providence/Cranston

City of Providence Mayor's RA Initiative

This innovative program offers the opportunity for summer school youth to participate in the Recovery Act Summer Program. City departments engaged in this program include the School Department, Parks, Recreation, the Police Department, and Public Works. Community partners include the Providence Downtown Improvement District, RI School of Design, Harken Productions, Woonasquatucket River Watershed Council, Groundwork Providence, AS220, The Steelyard, New Urban Arts, Community Works RI, Project 20/20 Brown University, Everett Dance Theatre/Carriage House, West Elmwood Housing Development Corp. This effort will be coordinated by the Mayor's Office of Arts, Culture and Tourism

Adams and Associates	Providence Youth Ages 14-24, with a focus on youth in summer school	Adams and Associate will provide outreach, recruitment, application documentation and processing, assessments, establishing an ISS, work readiness training, career exploration field trips, assistance with job placement selection, job coaching, site monitoring, weekly work experience review and documentation and portfolio documentation.	350	7
The Mayor's Office of Arts, Culture and Tourism Contact: Aliza Schiff 421-2489 x273 aschiff@providenceri.com		Will organize and coordinate the work experience site placements as well as provide reimbursement for vendor costs and supplies associated with the work experience placements.		