

Rhode Island Department of Labor and Training Notice to ALL EMPLOYEES - Information Employers Must Post

Attention Employees - MINIMUM WAGE - Rhode Island

Effective JANUARY 1, 2007 - THIS LAW PROVIDES

HOURLY MINIMUM WAGE FOR ALL EMPLOYEES	$7.40
EXCEPT: Full-time students under 19 years of age working in a non-profit religious, educational, librarial or community services organization. (90% of Minimum Wage)	$6.66
Minors 14 and 15 years of age working not more than 24 hours in a week. (75% of Minimum Wage)	$5.55

Overtime Pay - At least 1 1/2 times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in any one workweek. Note: The law contains exemptions from the minimum wage and/or overtime pay requirements for certain occupations or establishments.

*Learners and handicapped workers may be paid less than the applicable minimum but only under certificate issued at the discretion of the Director of Labor and Training.

Mandatory Nurse Overtime - Pursuant to RI Law §23-17.20-1 et. seq., a hospital may not require certain nurses and certified nurse assistants to work overtime except in an unforeseeable emergent circumstance.

Minimum Shift Hours - Any employee requested or permitted to report for duty at the beginning of a work shift must be provided with 3 hours work or 3 hours wages. Employees working in retail establishments must be provided with 4 hours work on Sundays and/or holidays.

Child Labor - An employee must be at least 16 years old to work in most nonfarm jobs and at least 18 to work in nonfarm jobs declared hazardous by the Secretary of Labor of the United States. Youths 14 and 15 may work, with a special permit issued by local school officials, in various jobs outside school hours under certain conditions. Different rules apply to agriculture employment.

Labor Standards Unit, RI Dept. of Labor & Training

Enforcement - The RI Department of Labor and Training may bring criminal action against any employer who pays substandard wages to an employee, and may seek, upon conviction, a penalty up to $500.00 and/or imprisonment of up to 90 days. Each week an employer fails to pay the applicable minimum wage constitutes a separate violation.

Any employer who hinders or delays the Director or his/her authorized representative in the performance of his/her duties in the enforcement of the law; refuses to admit the Director or said representative to any place of employment; fails to make, keep, and preserve any records as required; falsifies any such record; refuses to make such record accessible to the Director or said representative upon demand; or refuses to furnish a sworn statement of such record or any other information needed for the proper enforcement of this law, shall be deemed in violation of the law and subject to a fine of up to $500.00. Each day such violation occurs constitutes a separate offense.

THE LAW REQUIRES EMPLOYERS TO DISPLAY THIS POSTER WHERE EMPLOYEES CAN READILY SEE IT.

RHODE ISLAND PARENTAL AND FAMILY MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

This notice is to provide you with information on the RI Parental and Family Medical Leave Act, which requires that employers of 50 or more employees grant an unpaid leave of absence, upon the request of an eligible employee, for 13 consecutive weeks in any two calendar years, under certain conditions.

Employees Eligible - Employees are eligible to apply for leave if they are full-time employees who work an average of 30 hours a week or more and have been employed continuously for at least 12 months.

Purpose of Leave - The leave required to be provided under the Act must be for one or more of the following reasons:

1. Birth of a child of an employee.
2. Placement of a child 16 years of age or less with an employee in connection with the adoption of such child by the employees.
3. "Serious illness" of the employee or the employee's parent, spouse, child, mother-in-law or father-in-law. (Serious Illness is defined to mean a disabling physical or mental illness, injury, impairment or condition that involves in-patient care in a hospital, nursing home, hospice or out-patient care requiring continuing treatment or supervision by a health care provider).

Requests for Leave - In order to be entitled to the leave, the employee must give at least 30 days notice of the intended date upon which the requested leave is to commence and terminate, unless prevented by medical emergency from doing so. Employees may be requested to provide written certification from the physician of the person who is the reason for the leave request, which certification shall specify the probable duration of the requested leave.

School Involvement Leave - An employee who has been employed for 12 consecutive months is entitled to 10 hours of leave during any 12-month period to attend school conferences or other school-related activities for a child of whom the employee is the parent, foster parent, or guardian. A notice of 24 hours prior to the leave must be given to the employer by the employee. The leave is not required to be paid; however, an employee may substitute any accrued paid vacation leave or other appropriate paid leave.

Use of Sick Leave by Adoptive Parent - Any employer who allows sick time or sick leave of an employee to be used after the birth of a child shall allow the same time to be used for the placement of a child 16 years of age or less with an employee in connection with the adoption of the child by the employee.

Continuation of Health Benefits - Prior to the commencement of leave, the employee must pay his employer a sum equal to the premium required to maintain the employee's health benefits in force during the period of leave, which sum is required to be returned to the employee within 10 days following return to work.

Return from Leave - Employees who are granted leave under the Act are entitled to be restored to the position held when the leave commenced, or to a position with equivalent seniority, status, employment benefits, pay and other terms and conditions of employment, including all fringe benefits and service credits that the employee had been entitled to at the commencement of the leave.

Prohibited Acts - The Act makes it unlawful for any employer to interfere with, restrain or deny employees the rights provided under the Act. Any discrimination or disciplinary action taken against an employee for exercising his rights under the Act, or for opposing any practice made unlawful by the Act, is also prohibited.

Enforcement - Alleged violations of the Act may be complained of (1) in a civil action brought by an employee, (2) by a complaint filed with the Director of Labor and Training of the State of Rhode Island. Civil penalties are provided for violations of the Act or any order issued by the Director of Labor and Training.

(Rev. 4/2008)

This employer is subject to the provisions of the WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT of the State of Rhode Island

Workers' Compensation Insurance Company: _____

Adjusting Company: _____

Telephone: _____ Policy Effective Date: _____

In accordance with Rhode Island General Law §28-32-1, the employer must report to the Director of Labor and Training every personal injury sustained by an employee if the injury incapacitates the employee from earning full wages for at least three (3) days or requires medical treatment, regardless of the period of incapacity. If the injury proves fatal, the report must be filed within forty-eight (48) hours. If not fatal, the report shall be made within ten (10) days of the injury.

An injured employee shall have the freedom to choose medical treatment initially. The employee's first visit to any facility under contract or agreement with the employer or insurer to provide priority care shall not be considered the employee's initial choice. For more information about Workers' Compensation procedures and benefits, call the Education Unit at (401) 462-8100, press #1 or TDD (401) 462-8006. If you suspect fraud, contact the Fraud Prevention Unit at (401) 462-8100, press #7.

In accordance with Rhode Island General Law §28-29-13, this notice must be posted and maintained in conspicuous places where workers are employed. Fines may be imposed for noncompliance.
