Real Jobs RI is Rhode Island’s new workforce development initiative that invites employers within a specific industry or region to come together to identify common workforce challenges. Linked by a lead convener, these partners identify challenges, propose solutions, and gather the necessary partners to make those solutions a reality. Through this process, partnerships will provide targeted education and skills training to Rhode Island workers, meet the talent needs of employers, and strengthen Rhode Island’s economy.

In November 2015, the Department of Labor and Training awarded twenty-six (26) Real Jobs RI Implementation Grants to partnerships in eleven (11) industries, as well as four (4) regions. Several of these partnerships are focused on building pathways to employment for specific populations such as low-income families, ex-offenders, and Veterans. Implementation Grants will fund employer-designed worker training, as well other innovative workforce solutions that these partnerships have developed.

Please see below for the complete list of grantees by industry.

Aquaculture Training Partnership

Lead Applicant: The Education Exchange
Employers Partners: East Coast Shellfish Growers Association, Cedar Island Oysters, Behan Family Farms, East Beach Farm, East Beach Oyster Farm, Matunuck Oyster Farm, Watch Hill Oysters, Ocean State Shellfish Cooperative, Walrus and Carpenter Oysters, American Mussels, American Mussel Harvesters, Salt Pond Oyster Company, Jamestown Oyster Company
Strategic Partners: Roger Williams University, The Coastal Institute – URI, Town of South Kingstown, Michael Jarret, Literacy Volunteers of Washington County, Welcome House of South Country, Jonnycake Center of Peace Dale, Families Leaning Together Through Literacy
Abstract: The Aquaculture Training Partnership has developed an innovative approach to provide training for careers in the oyster farm industry while providing incumbent workers with additional industry certifications to increase skills and wages. This employer driven partnership identified skills gaps, designed training to close those gaps, and developed a training plan to produce qualified candidates for employment in this growing industry.
Biomedical Equipment Technician & Data Scientist Apprenticeship Program

Lead Applicant: Claflin Medical Equipment
Employers Partners: Claflin Medical Equipment, Claflin Company, South County Hospital, VA Memorial Hospital, RI Free Clinic
Strategic Partners: Community College of RI, Year Up

Abstract: Employers in the biomedical equipment industry have difficulty finding qualified labor to fill equipment and IT positions. The pool of Rhode Island workers who can meet this demand is insufficient. As a result, these jobs are going to job seekers from out of state; positions stay vacant for long periods of time; and companies often need to provide in-house training (which most are unprepared to do). This partnership will create an apprenticeship program, and a pipeline of trained technicians to meet the growing needs of RI employers in a high-wage, high-skilled occupation.

MedTech Innovation Engine

Lead Applicant: MedMates
Employers Partners: Ximedica, Aspiera, HealthID, Blue Cross Blue Shield, Synchronized Sales, Sproutel, Neighborhood Health Plan of RI
Strategic Partners: Tech Collective, RI Bioscience Leaders, Brown, Science and Technology Advisory Council

Abstract: The MedTech Innovation engine will create a comprehensive curriculum for MedTech entrepreneurs; resulting a replicable solution that continuously generates new and higher wage jobs in the med-tech sector in Rhode Island. The MedTech Innovation Engine is a partnership of organizations and individuals that will collaborate to support the launch and growth of medical technology ventures. The partnership will create a resilient conduit for med-tech innovation throughout Rhode Island and a launchpad for collaboration throughout the region and beyond.

Residential Construction Workforce Partnership

Lead Applicant: Rhode Island Builders Association
Employers Partners: RI Builders Association (900 member firms), RI Building Materials and Lumber Dealers Association (Approx. 32 firms),
Strategic Partners: Providence Revolving Fund, Building Officials Association, New England Institute of Technology, Youth Build, MTTI, Milenio Latino Institute, RI Career & Tech schools (10)

Abstract: The Residential Construction Workforce partnership brings together the residential construction industry to solve its collective workforce issues. To facilitate skills growth and job placements, the partnership intends to coordinate recruitment for training programs, align curriculum in training centers to better meet industry need, create a job bank, provide professional education to help firms grow, and reach out to minority labor pools to overcome employment barriers.
Building Futures

Lead Applicant: The Providence Plan (Building Futures)
Strategic Partners: Brown University – Facilities Division, City of Providence – Purchasing, ONE Neighborhood Builders, RI AFL-CIO, University of Rhode Island – LRC/Economics, Greater Providence Chamber of Commerce, Shechtman-Halperin-Savage LLP

Abstract: The Building Futures partnership will focus on addressing the skilled workforce needs of the construction sector while unlocking more employment opportunities for entry-level and incumbent workers. The partnership seeks to harness the power of Registered Apprenticeship to create a seamless pipeline of skilled workers and defined career pathways to meet current and future workforce demands. The plan includes training to provide critical skills in maritime safety, rigging, and scaffolding to meet the demands of employers who will be constructing large-scale energy projects.

Real Jobs RI Construction Trades Skill-Up

Lead Applicant: West Elmwood Housing Development Corporation
Employers Partners: Rhode Island Black Contractors Association, NeighborWorks Blackstone River Valley, Providence Revolving Fund, Coast Modern Construction, ACR Construction
Strategic Partners: YouthBuild Providence, KITE Architects

Abstract: The Construction Trades Skill-Up Partnership seeks to establish a culture of opportunity and improvement in the local construction industry by developing a replicable professional development continuum that strengthens contractors’ capacity to meet industry needs. Such an approach will have a cross-industry impact, increasing entry-level workers’ skills and employment opportunities, increasing contractors’ competitiveness and supply of skilled workers, and enabling developers to complete successful developments and meet hiring mandates.

Rhode Island Urban Apprenticeship Program

Lead Applicant: United Association of Plumbers and Pipefitters, Local 51
Strategic Partners: Mayforth Group, New Commons, Progreso Latino, Urban Ventures

Abstract: The Rhode Island Urban Apprenticeship Program seeks to meet growing demand in the plumbing, pipefitting, and steam fitting trades while connecting these careers to Rhode Island’s fast growing urban population. The partnership seeks to develop an innovative, hands-on pre-apprenticeship program that serves as a pathway to a full-time apprenticeship in these trades; meeting demand while opening the doors of opportunities to more Rhode Islanders.
Pipelines to Manufacturing Careers in Ship Building

Lead Applicant: Electric Boat
Employers Partners: Electric Boat, Guill Tool, Toray, Applied Radar, VR Industries
Strategic Partners: New England Institute of Technology, Community College of RI, Rhode Island Department of Education, Rhode Island College

Abstract: The Pipelines to Manufacturing Careers in Ship Building partnership is unique to the Real Jobs RI effort and unique to the state of Rhode Island. Led by Electric Boat, the partnership seeks to create training programs and a medium/long-term pipeline of skilled workers to fill one of the largest planned hiring efforts in Rhode Island’s history - the estimated need for more than 10,000 skilled workers in the maritime manufacturing industry over the next 10 years.

Real Jobs Rhode Island Cybersecurity Partnership

Abstract: The Cybersecurity Partnership seeks to provide industry-led cybersecurity workforce training for Rhode Island’s underemployed, unemployed, Veterans, and high school and college students. This multifaceted approach will include awareness efforts, competency assessments, rapid certification training, internships, and intellectual property to market mentorships.

Design FORWARD Partnership

Lead Applicant: DESIGNxRI
Employers Partners: Taylor Box Company, Orange Square, Bradford Soap Works, KITE Architects, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Rhode Island, Ximedica
Strategic Partners: DownCity Design, RISD Continuing Education

Abstract: DESIGN FORWARD is a comprehensive strategy with three distinct elements that together seek to strengthen and support the design sector skills and career development in Rhode Island. The training strategies are developed to ensure that existing designers are able to adapt in response to emerging trends, that emerging designers have the support they need to find success in the workplace, and that the designers of the future are aware of possible design career pathways and are developing the skills necessary to pursue them.
Insurance Innovation Partnership

Lead Applicant: Independent Insurance Agents of RI (IIARI)
Strategic Partners: Real Jobs Partnership of Northern RI, InVEST

Abstract: The Innovative Insurance Partnership intends to create and implement a comprehensive recruitment and training program to address the employment needs of an aging insurance workforce. Using employer-led curriculum, emphasis will be placed on attracting new talent to the industry and while training the existing workforce to keep up with the evolving trends of the industry.

Rhode Island Financial Skills Initiative

Lead Applicant: Rhode Island Bankers Association
Strategic Partners: University of Rhode Island – Business Engagement Center

Abstract: The Rhode Island banking industry currently lacks an industry-wide comprehensive training resource. As the current banking workforce ages, this presents a significant challenge as there is no longer a pipeline of emerging talent in Rhode Island with the requisite skills to replace them. The Rhode Island Financial Skills Initiative brings together employers, education providers, and a trade association, to provide Rhode Island’s banking industry with the training resources and talent needed to remain successful.

Healthcare Training Collaborative

Lead Applicant: Saint Antoine Residence
Employers Partners: Saint Antoine Residence, Ballou Home, Scandinavian Home, HomeFront Heathcare, Tockwotton Senior Care, PACE
Strategic Partners: CareLink, URI Department of Nurse Practitioner and Physical Therapy, Rhode Island College, Stepping Up, Tockwotton, Genesis Center

Abstract: The Healthcare Training Collaborative seeks to address both current and emerging needs in eldercare by providing soft skills and job-specific skills training, placing highly skilled and trained people into job opportunities with healthcare employers, and offering additional training opportunities that lead to career advancement and higher pay. These actions are part of a broader effort to respond to the workforce needs of employers while supporting job seekers, particular low-income job seekers, on the path to economic self-sufficiency.
