Course Outline/Topics to be Covered

Trainees will prepare for employment in industrial janitorial services and housekeeping services. Instruction will focus on proper application of environmentally sound tools and techniques and safe cleaning practices that meet the industry's professional standards and address clients' specific needs. This includes particular methods used for day care, nursing homes, assisted living and hospitals. Full on-site assistance from Support Staff--Social Case Manager, Job Developer (soft skills training, resume building, job placement assistance), Transition Specialist (access to further training and/or higher education, Health Care Coordinator. Follow up for one year after graduation, with full access to support services.) Trainees are required to attend weekly job club meetings after the completion of the program to secure employment. INCLUDES OSHA 40 HR HAZWOPER CERTIFICATE.
